OBJECTIVE OF THE EVENT

To provide the platform for the students of B.Com, BBA, BCA & M.Com to exhibit & sell their Hand made decorative festive items in the campus.

OUTCOME OF THE EVENT

The campus creation activity proved to be a multifaceted success, delivering significant value across skill development, financial understanding, and community engagement. By designing and selling handmade decorative festive items students gained direct, practical experience in entrepreneurship. They actively navigated the end-to-end business process, from budgeting for raw materials and pricing products for profit to executing sales pitches and managing inventory on event day. Working in collaborative teams allowed participants to divide responsibilities based on individual strengths, strengthening their capabilities in teamwork, financial management, and customer negotiation.
